Served up perfectly with Alexander Paul Antiques

While for many the imposing nature of an antique farmhouse table may be a little too much, there is no such worry with one of Alexander Paul Antiques' exquisite serving tables. Taking up far less room, yet still delivering oodles of charm, each serving table has been lovingly returned to former glory by Alexander Paul Antiques skilled restorers, who ensure every piece carries the unrivalled appearance that can only come through centuries of use.

Whether owners desire the almost regal quality of a beautiful French Chestnut Two Drawer Serving Table with Bread Slide or want for the countryside appeal of a French Oak Farmhouse Pot Boarded Server, Alexander Paul Antiques have the serving table to make dreams come true.

For those period homes, what could be more fitting in the dining room or hallway than the exquisite elegance of the French Chestnut Two Drawer Serving Table with Bread Slide. Its delicate proportions and beautiful red tinged patina would warm the soul of any onlooker, while its brass handle faced draws provide the ideal place to store Sunday best cutlery.

Few items can match the rustic allure of a French Oak Farmhouse Pot Boarded Server with its strength of stature and sumptuous, deeply toned oak and the dips, troughs and marks that only centuries of use can bring. With three useful drawers and a strong shelf underneath the Pot Boarded Server is as useful as it is beautiful.

The logo for selectfirst PUBLIC RELATIONS, featuring the word "selectfirst" in a bold, lowercase sans-serif font above the words "PUBLIC RELATIONS" in a smaller, uppercase sans-serif font, all contained within a red rectangular box.

And for a different take, something a little more universal, the simplicity of the Three Drawer Serving Table oozes appeal with its tapered legs and exquisite depth of grain and patina, while simple turned handles top off this perfect dining or hallway partner to perfection.

Whatever the intended use and wherever the location, the usefulness of an Alexander Paul Antique serving table can only be bettered by its quality, elegance and eternal appeal.
